

The Crofton Singers (a registered charity)

Conductor: Raymond Chandler

6.30 p.m. on Saturday 28 June 1997

Fiftieth Anniversary Concert

at Bancroft's School (in the Prep. Department Hall)

---

In pride of May ..... Thomas Weelkes
Now every tree..... Thomas Weelkes
All creatures now ..... John Bennet

SOLO

Linden Lea..... R Vaughan Williams
The Evening Primrose ..... Benjamin Britten (words by John Clare)
My love's an arbutus..... arr. C V Stanford
Strawberry Fair ..... arr. Donald James

INTERVAL

Five Childhood Lyrics ..... John Rutter

SOLO

Gentle John (from the song cycle 'Golden Rings') ..... Raymond Warren
The slow train..... Flanders and Swann arr. P Rossiter
It was a lover and his lass ..... John Rutter
Sing we and chant it ..... Thomas Morley

Soloist: ALAN POWER - RECORDER

Guest Conductor: RAYMOND WARREN

ENTRANCE £5.00

CONCESSIONS £4.00

Refreshments and a glass of wine in the interval are included in the entrance charge

Thanks are due to the Redbridge Library Service for the loan of music

---

Founded in 1947 by former members of the Combined Choirs of Bancroft's and Loughton County High School, the Crofton Singers continue to give several concerts of sacred and secular music each year in and around Woodford in support of local charities.

New members are very welcome. If you are interested, please contact the Secretary on 0181 505 6105.

